ADVOCA CY IN ACTION – Social Justice Forum, October 23, 2013 @ 4-7:00 PM

PURPOSE: Through music, powerful videos, dynamic processes, and active conversations, participants will explore the critical questions facing society today and prepare themselves to be powerful leaders who embrace diversity and social change through creativity and collaboration. Wake-up, Thrive, Synergize and Mobilize.

SKILLS LEARNED: Networking, Civic Engagement, Self-Esteem Building, Global Connectivity

KEY QUESTIONS: What drives you, What is your passion? What do you want to see changed?

SPONSORS: ROAR Scholars/ORG A & Office of Institutional Diversity

SPECIAL GUEST: Barbara Jefferson/Joshua Gorman, Generation Waking Up

FACILITATORS

Lynda Ketner – Fall’11

Advocacy Speakers 2011-2013

Jeff Johnson – Fall’12

GENERATION WAKING UP Fall’13
Purpose: By the end of the program, we hope students will be tolerant of different cultures and cuisines, spark an interest in studying abroad, and gain knowledge of cultures of the world. Students should also be comfortable situations concerning cultures of the world.

Skills Learned: Cultural Awareness, Multiculturalism, Globalization, Cultural Sensitivity, Exposure to cuisines/cultures of the world, Proper consumption of cuisines of the world, ability to dine in diverse settings, ability to eat without western utensils

Sponsors: ORGA, ROAR Scholars Program, The Bluerose Café, Mi Xiao, Nirleap, Zen Asian Fusion

Facilitators: Britnee Smalls, Peer Mentor

Partnerships: Leyla’s, Zen Asian Fusion, Jamaican Cuisine provided by Donna Mitchell & Chamorro Cuisine by Shawntell Pace

Question | Poor (1) | Fair (2) | Average (3) | Good (4) | Excellent (5)
---|---|---|---|---|---
1 Leyla's Fine Lebanese Cuisine - April 3, 2014 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 4
2 Caribbean Cuisine - April 17, 2014 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 2
3 Zen Fusion Restaurant - April 22, 2014 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 1
4 Chamorro Culture - April 24, 2014 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 3

Text Response

I would participate in this program, because it gives me a chance to experience other cultures besides my own. I have learned a lot during this. Yes, I enjoyed the food and learning about the history of the food of different cultures. Yes! I like to eat. I like to try new things. It's cultural enrichment, which is good. Yes, I would because this an enriching experience.